

winter news

As the final leaf falls from the tree, and the drive home from work gets darker and darker each day, we know we are in the thick of winter. Winter is a time for reflecting upon the year so far and making plans for the warmer months ahead. At Natural Chique, the fire place is lit, the hot chocolates are flowing, and our creative minds are expanding. Now is the time to embrace that change you have been thinking about. Soft cinnamon low lights through your blonde hair, or maybe a rich mahogany semi to give your dull hair shine and lustre, whatever your desire, is ours to aspire.

Sydney 2011

Hair Expo in Sydney is one of Natural Chiques highlights of the year. It is our chance to check out new products and check out the latest trends from overseas. It is also a chance for the team to reconnect and have fun, although something will always not go according to plan! Last year the entire salon suffered a horrible bought of Gastro, this year, the whole team was stranded in Sydney as planes remained grounded because of the ash crisis! Thank you Georgina for driving everyone home safely!

Welcome Poppy & Alice!

Kristy gave birth to two gorgeous daughters, Poppy Anne & Alice Maree on May the 25th. Weighing a tiny 1.9 & 2.3kilos, the girls arrived the day after Kristy's birthday. Kristy would like to thank everyone for their wonderful gifts and well wishes.

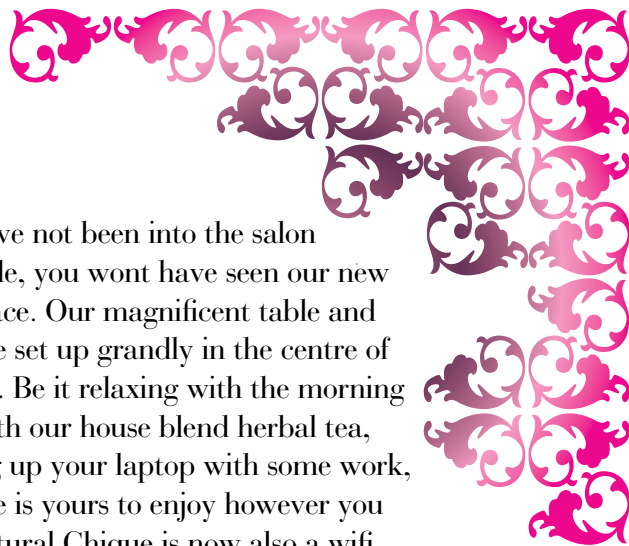

Congratulations to Narelle Conversano as the winner of the baby competition, donating $150 to her chosen charity.

If you have not been into the salon for a while, you wont have seen our new client space. Our magnificent table and chairs are set up grandly in the centre of the salon. Be it relaxing with the morning paper with our house blend herbal tea, or setting up your laptop with some work, this space is yours to enjoy however you wish. Natural Chique is now also a wifi zone, so you may also like to search for a new hairstyle or play games on the Salon iPad. We hope you enjoy this extra space, which is just another way can provide you with an extra special service.

What an amazing three years it has been at Natural Chique. To help celebrate, we have some Birthday Celebration Packages for you to choose for your next visit! These packages are valid until September 30th, 2011. Gift Certificates may be purchased, and are valid until October 31st, 2011.

Natural Chique spent a day behind the camera styling the hair and make-up of four models. This creative day has produced many fabulous photos, which you will see displayed in the salon soon!
